TIDE

Shoreline High School
Seattle, Washington

We end an era when we come in with first tide, beginning an important time in our lives.

Catching sight of our own goals, we each start out in different directions, but we travel together.

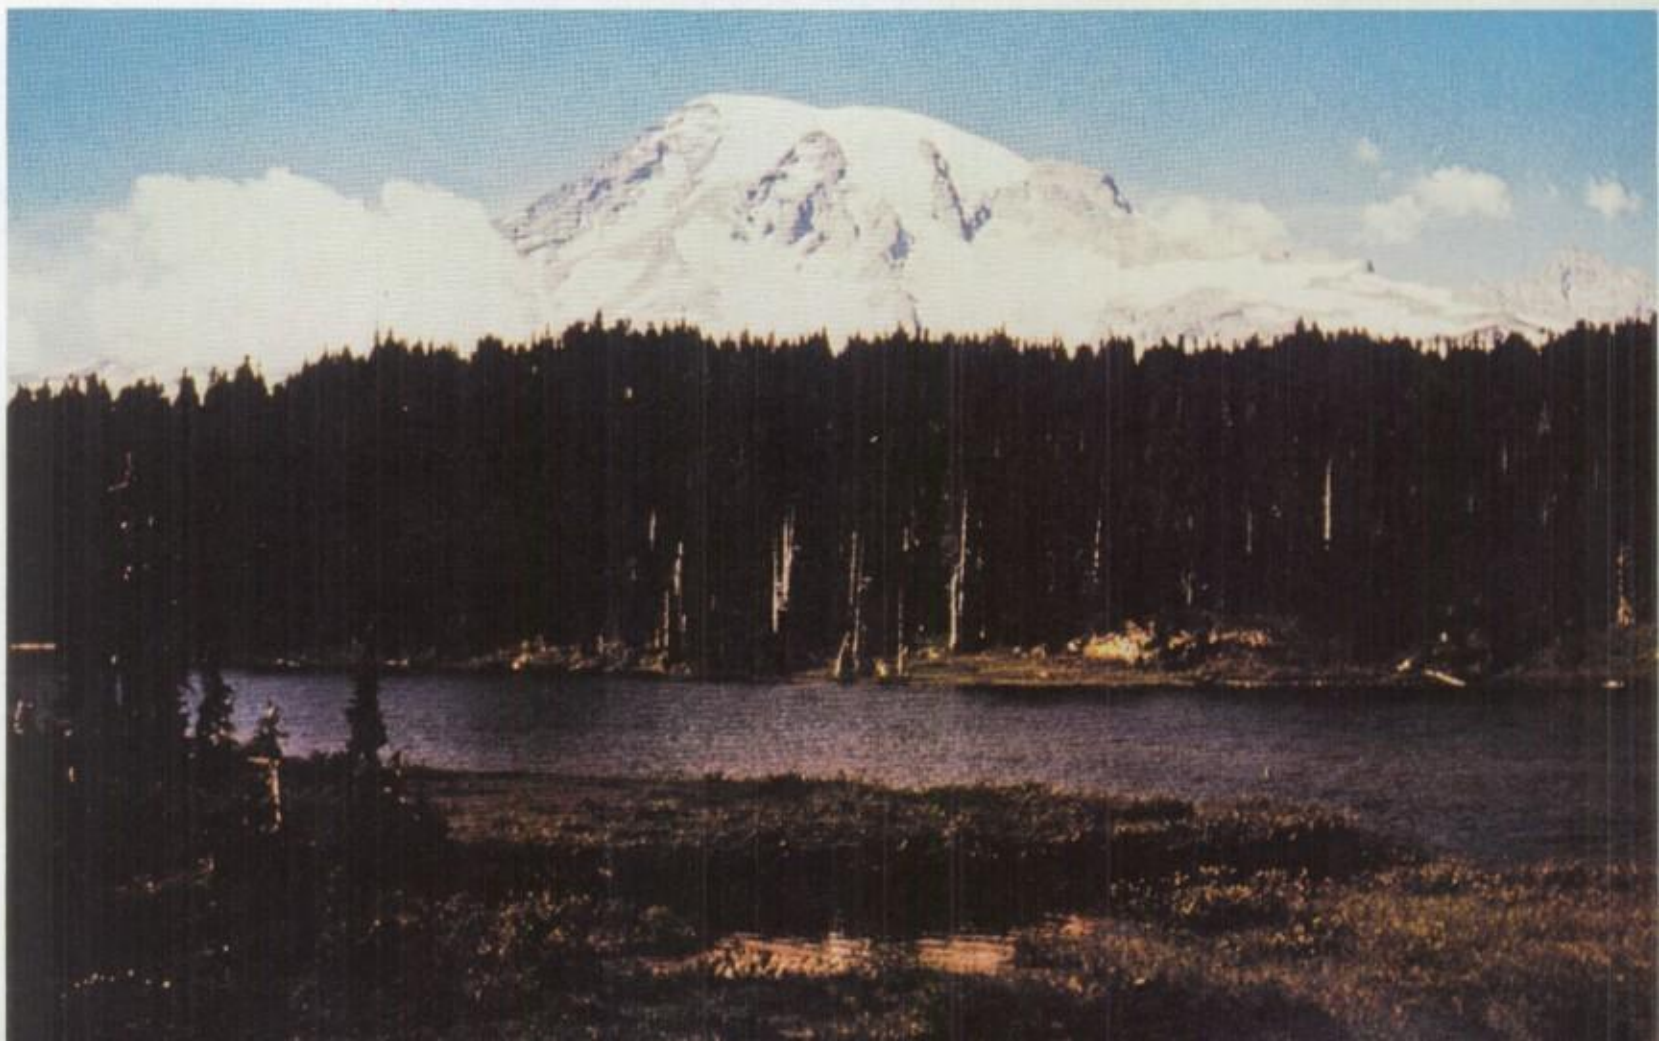

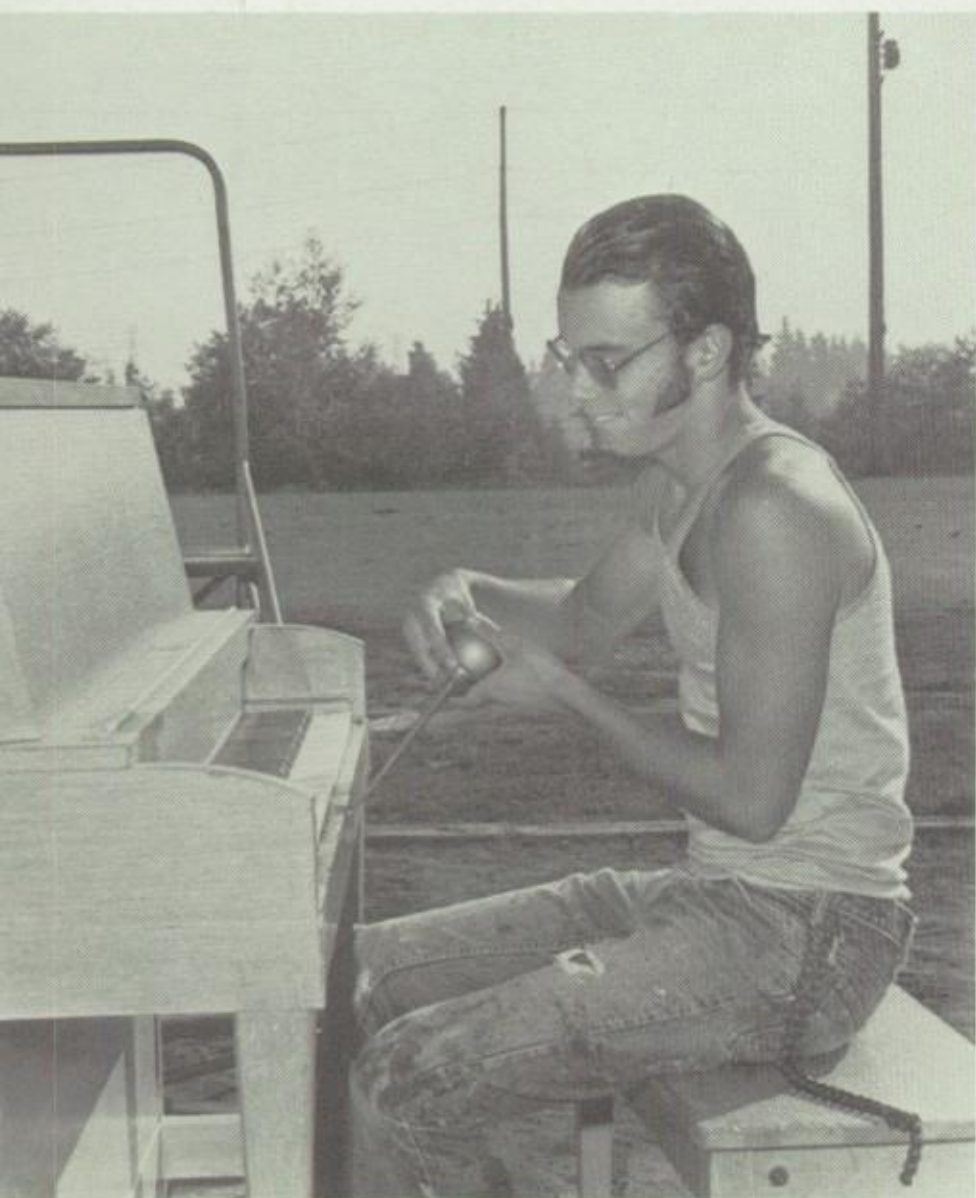

When we finish our travels together we are still left with a long climb, but this climb we must make alone, hopefully drawing strength from the time in which we journeyed together.

This is the story of our journey . . .

A. Bill Odell in his sixteenth year of coaching at Shoreline surveys the field during one of the many Spartan victories.

B. Junior Ken Hoskins flies through Hamlin Park enroute to a third place finish against Hale.

C. Senior and first year runner, Rich Johnson, proved to be a real asset to the team, here placing fourth against Hale.

D. Senior, Mike Hahn begins one of his patented kicks to pass opponents near the finish of a race.

Capture Dual Meet, District 10 Titles

Following an undefeated dual meet season the spirited Spartan Harriers, led by Gordy Braun's first place finish and Rich Johnson's eighth, captured second in the Metro League. Nevertheless they were disappointed by their performance and rebounded back just three days later by defeating Hale, the Metro champs in the District 10 state qualifying meet. From the season opening sixth place finish at the Edmonds Invitational to their tenth place at state, the team ran hard and inspired the entire Shoreline student body.

A. Team Captain Gordy Braun, winner of the Edmonds Invitational and Metro League crowns coasts to a dual meet win.

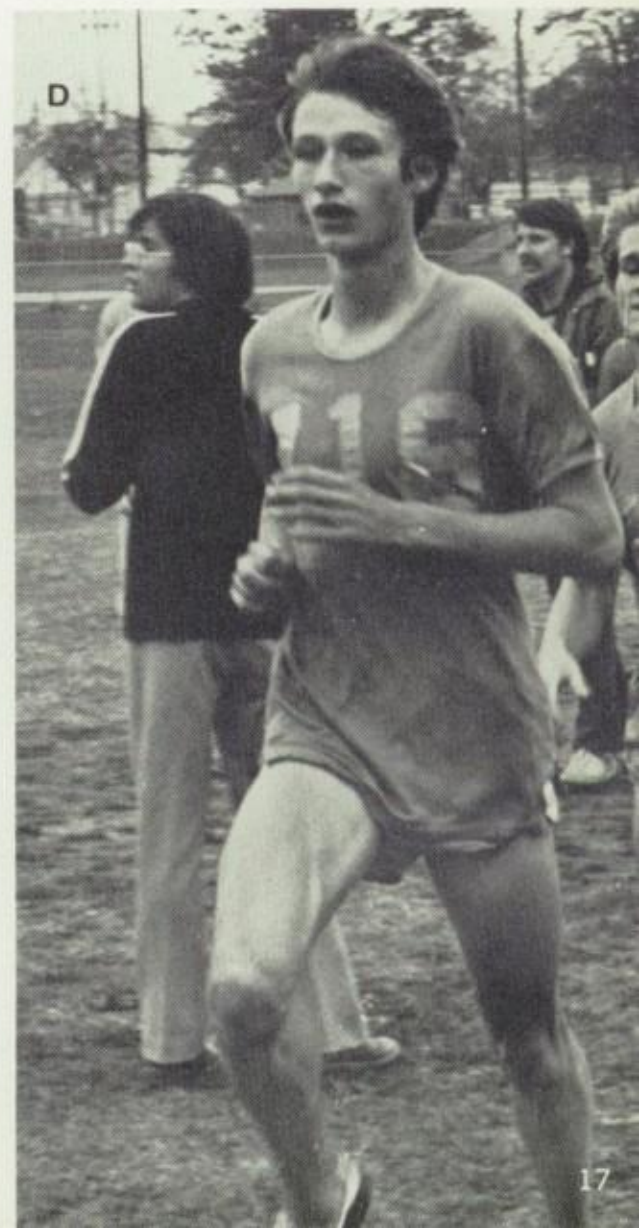

B. Garv Hoskins, a promising sophomore kept the upper-classmen honest, ready to take their place should they falter.

C. Senior Lee Lockhart, always there to do the job gave valuable strength to the team.

D. Senior Bill Elliot, a three year letterman, turned in several outstanding performances and was instrumental to the team's success.

Junior Varsity Brightens Future C.C. Hopes

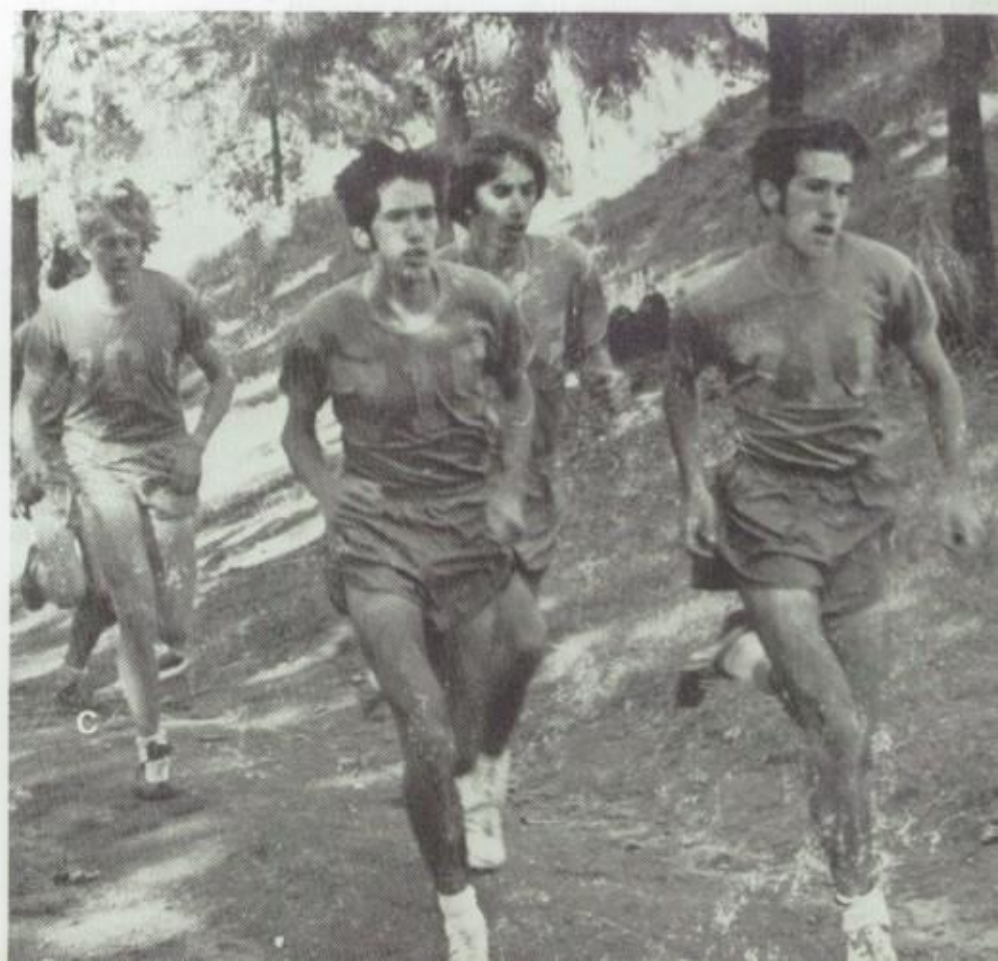

Showing tremendous strength and talent the J.V. team made Shoreline's future cross country hopes look bright. Losing only one dual meet all season the second team rolled to a third place finish in Metro, while their third team counterparts captured second. Top runners eyeing spots on next year's varsity are juniors Chris Hauck, Greg Lies, Rich Rossel, Scott Wehmeyer, Lee Wehmeyer, Scott Langdon, Holms and Kirk Mathews.

Girl Harriers Capture Second in Metro

Again, just as last year, the Shoreline girls' cross-country team proved to be a Metro powerhouse. Featuring an awesome one-two punch in juniors Dana Amdahl (4th in Metro) and Denise Anderson (5th) the team lost only one dual meet and placed second in the league. Captain Laura Cuvreau struck a blow for women's lib by becoming the first girl in Shoreline history to run 1000 miles thus becoming a member of that exclusive club. Marcia Bender was awarded the inspirational trophy by her teammates.

Monopoly Club and Alternative Ed. Debut at Shoreline

A monopoly club was formed this year, advised by Ms. Diane Huey. After meeting every Wednesday after school, it was shown that the game isn't as easy as it looks. A double elimination tournament was held for all members, with Ken Will coming out the champion.

A new outlet to the every day problems of a Shoreline schedule was applied this year, and Alternative Education was available to those who signed up for it. With Alternative Ed. came the acquisition of new courses such as Oceanography, Modern Dance and Yoga.

A. The 1973 Shoreline Varsity coached by Norm Sturm and William Albrecht.

While ending the season 4 & 4 the Spartan gridders managed to finish in 4th place. Led by captain Rob Tripple and coached by Norm Sturm, they finished one place higher than last year. Five Shoreline players were picked for the All-Metro team. They were Don Wardlow, Kyle Riddell, Ed Lundberg, Bob Stretton and Tony Valenzuela. Don Wardlow was also picked for the All-State team. Shoreline was favored with a very strong line, while junior Jeff Hayes performed well as quarterback. While never being overpowered by opponents, they were hampered with small mistakes. Opening against the tough '71' Metro Champs, Nathan Hale, the Spartans were unable to put their efforts together on offense, but the defense held them in there. Next game things changed; the Spartan team smashed Rainier Beach 55-6. Even though the season did not meet the hopes of the coach and players it turned out to be a good season with lots of talent coming back next year.

A hard working, well organized Sophomore Team came up to end the season 3-3 and 1, after losing the first three games against Roosevelt, Hale and Ballard. The team was coached by Al Haynes and Sherman Williamson. Shoreline's defense was very strong this year; in the games they lost they held their opponents to less than 3 first downs. These players will probably be a big plus in varsity line-up next year.

B. The 1973 Sophomore Football Team Coached by Al Haynes and Sherman Williamson.

Club Brings in Dough

Key Club continued providing service at Shoreline's football and basketball games and other activities. The club also put on a fund raising pancake breakfast. Key Club provided many services for the community, too. They went to nursing homes and Fircrest, and participated in other areas of community service.

Key Club had twenty-three members, who met once a week. There were girls in Key Club this year which made for a nice change from previous years. Mr. Vic Scarpelli was the advisor this year.

Homecoming is Really Slick

This year's homecoming had to be one of the best to ever come to Shoreline. It started out like many other homecoming weeks, with little apparent student interest, but as the week progressed a strange thing began to happen - the students actually began to show some interest in something. (The very thought of this boggles the imagination of mortal man). On Thursday they pelted members of the Lettermen's Club with wet sponges, and by Friday things had really come to a head as it was news-making, "Greaser Day." This day had been the project of several members of the executive board and it was a temporary return to the fifties for the student body. Some of Friday's highlights were a morning assembly featuring "Gary and the Greasers" and a sock-hop during lunch with "Johnny Saturn and the Electrics."

Alas, all this activity was to no avail, as Shoreline's Spartans suffered through a humiliating and degrading defeat to the Shorecrest Highlanders, that night on the fog-shrouded turf.

A. Emperor Norman I rode in the Spartan chariot during a skit presented by the faculty for the homecoming. The Emperor was accompanied by his aide, "Cactus" Jack Sherwood. Et tu, Cactus?

B. Johnny Saturn and the Electrics excited the crowd at the Homecoming Sock Hop.

C. Homecoming also brought Shoreline its first taste of the roller derby by having class competition on roller skates.

D. Cheerleader Jeanna Tolford revived a formerly unheard of dance from the fifties known as "The Giggle."

E. The student body hopped to the sounds of "Johnny Saturn and the Electrics" during lunch and rocked with "Tamarao" that night.

Girls Volley to Third in Metro

After getting off to a slow start by losing their first two games, Shoreline's girls' volleyball team, coached by Mrs. Alice Thomson, pulled off an amazing recovery by winning their next 9 games in a row. Their attempt to reach the championship however, was nullified by a late season loss to Ingraham. This season's captains were Janice Cunningham and Margo Smith.

Press Starts Rolling Again

Shoreline's school newspaper got off to a fresh start after being cut from the curriculum last year because of levy failure. The SHORELINER staff, advised by Mrs. Kay Bennett, was led by co-editors Karen Peterson and Dianne Christianson with Mark Sawyer as sports editor. Cartoonist Ray Heiskel, Charlene Peterson in circulation, Vic Varis exchange, and photographer Jeff Richardson all added their say during the SHORELINER'S ten publications. The staff also included reporters Mike Chaplin, John Lindsey, Jim Harris, Megan Gilbert and Rex Fullerton.

Encore For Tamarao

The Dance Committee planned and staged eleven dances, most of them after football and basketball games. Some of the bands that played were Tamarao, who came to Shoreline twice, Shotgun, Acapulco Gold, Onyx, and Chinook. However, the dance season was cut short because of poor attendance.

The Committee was advised by Mr. Oliver La Freniere.

A. Trevor Haist and Jill Maycumber are among the students enjoying a Shoreline dance. The after-football dances were held in the gym, all others in the cafeteria.

M.U.N. Delegates Solve the Problems of the World

Shoreline's M.U.N. delegates this year were led by chairperson Sandy Erickson and Secretary General Barb Blair. They were also advised by their energetic coach, Mr. Jim Kreiss. They began their season's activities by attending a conference in Vancouver, B.C., in February and planned for a conference of their own at Shoreline later in the year.

Lettermen's Club Promotes Spirit

The Lettermen's club under the leadership of President Jim Taylor and Faculty Advisor Rich Gustafson was the most active in recent years. Always looking for ways to help out the school or a needy charity they sponsored such fund raising projects as the KJR Basketball game, sponge throwing session and the Kiss the Pig contest. They were responsible for keeping the school reader board up to date as well as arousing student body spirit at pep assemblies. All was not hard work however as the club members enjoyed the annual hay ride, ski trip and car rally.

Groups Maintain School's Honor

This years Debate Team, coached by Mr. Jim Alderdice, was involved in several tournaments during the season. During one of the later tournaments, Sheila Hundertmark received a trophy for interpretive reading. Because of the past levy failure, the Debate

Team was facing a building year and looking forward to the future. Ms. Darlene Sherrick once again advised the Honor Society. A 3.5 grade average was mandatory to the roll, but after that, only a 3.2 was needed. The president this year was Jeff Cronk.

WAAAAAAA!

This year's Pep Squad had tried something new: two squads. One for fall and one for winter. The cheerleaders who remained all year were Jeanna Tolford, Candi Sweetin, Sandy Glenn, Dana Amdal, Teri McKinley, Suzie Moody and Michelle Moody. The fall yell kings were Duff Winkenwerder, Rob Edgers, Bob Mathers, Keith Pohlman and Mark Dillan. Doing their thing in the winter and spring were Ray Heiskel, Vic Varis, Steve Rust, Mark Dillan and Dan Lotz.

This group was one of the most spirited at Shoreline in many years, having won a spirit award for outstanding spirit at a multi-school summer camp for pep squad members. Their spirit was apparently non-infectious, through no fault of their own, as many of the students remained apathetic. They should be remembered as a group that tried their best even through times of low student spirit.

- A. Cheerleaders orient the sophomores.
- B. Jeanna Tolford gives a look of wonder. (Can we do it?)
- C. Cheerleaders make fools of mammas boys.

- E. Shoreline's pep squad frolic in the snow.

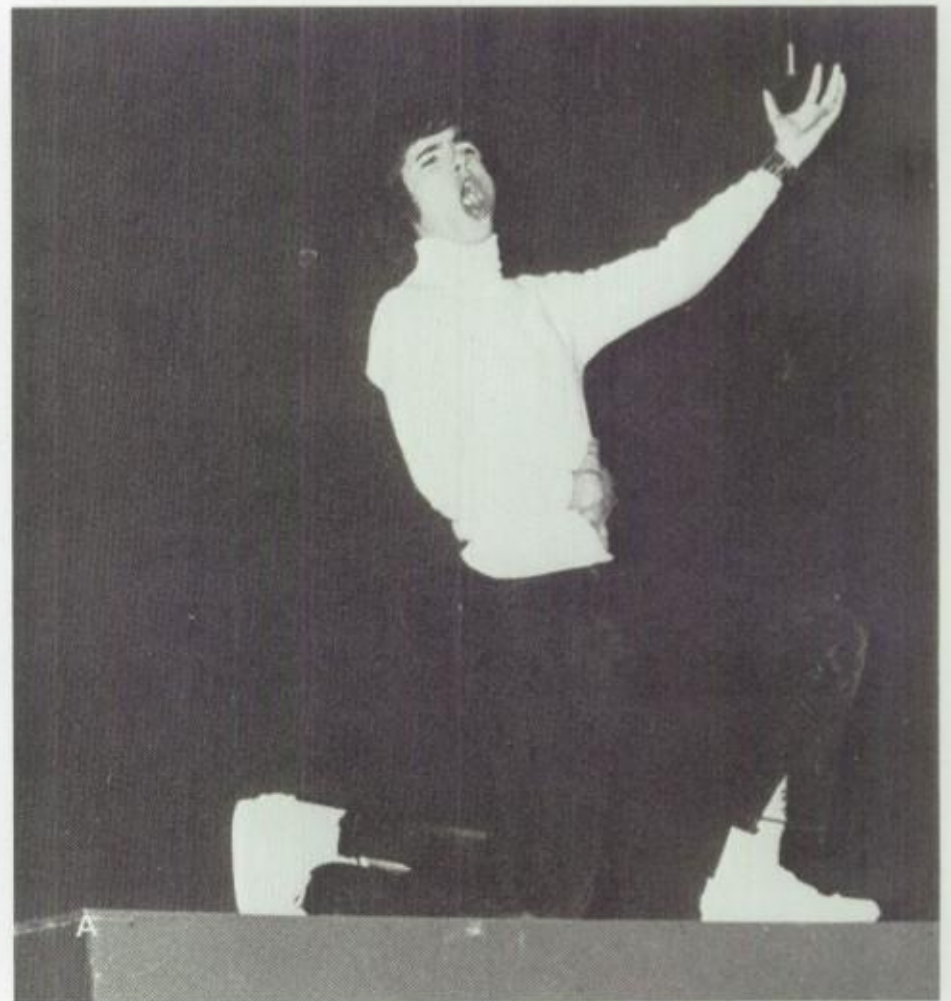

"You're a Good Man Charlie Brown"

Charlie Brown and Lucy delighted audiences on Dec. 7, 8, 9 as they re-enacted Charles Shultz' comic strips. The fall play "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" drew large crowds all three nights. Built by Dr. Wade Knisley's Stage Craft class, the sets were larger than normal to dwarf the characters. Ms. Sherry Cobbe worked with the choreography and Mr. Al Kroon helped the students with their voices. Mr. Milton Hamlin, Ms. Kay Pope and Ms. Shirley Tune were the faculty directors.

Shoreline's soccer team started off the '73 season with a pre-season tournament in which they lost only one game. In the tourney they faced such teams as O'Dea, Shorecrest and Cleveland. Following this tournament the booters began their regular season play. The team play was sparkling during much of the season but they seemed to have all the breaks go against them. This year's team had such outstanding players as (dummy) Thoreson and (Butz) Betts. The Shoreline team finished the regular season with a 5-1-1 record and went into the post-season playoffs with the chance of retaining their metro trophy. But this wasn't to be as Shoreline's soccer team lost two of three games to sink to 4th place.

Wrestlers Prove to Be an Awesome Force

The wrestling team under new Head Coach Tom Wiley, co-captains Rob Tripple and Ron Rebman, was nothing less than brilliant. With dedication and spirit they overpowered their opponents week after week. The season eventually boiled down to a highly emotional "grudge match" against the also undefeated Lincoln Linx in the regular season finale. But again just as last year the Metro Championship eluded the Spartan Grapplers. The team did, however, manage to keep the match in doubt until the final individual duel even though hampered by injuries to key personnel and sub-par performances by others. Jeff Richardson battled to a personal Metro crown at 168 lbs. in the District meet and went on to represent Shoreline at the State Tournament along with Rebman and Bob Strobel.

J.V. Wrestlers Fight to Undefeated Season

The future of Shoreline wrestling looks secure thanks to the hard work, persistence and promise of the J.V. wrestling team. The team showed the potential of future greatness by battling to an undefeated season. Cagers Tie For Second (to Last)

Spirits was the key to this year's varsity basketball team. Through thick and thin the Spartan cagers never gave up and played with heart in almost every game. Though they didn't enjoy a winning season, they at times showed flashes of brilliance, with bad breaks playing a key in many set-backs. The first unit was dominated by Seniors. Captain Mark Murray contributed over 16 points per game. Don Wardlow at 6'5" proved time and again to be one of Metro's finest defensive players. Steady all around player Marty Schiltz and hustling guard Scott Whittles added much needed experience to the team. Junior Steve Holmes rounded out the usual starting unit with consistant fine play.

J.V. Basketball Shows Desire and Promise

The J.V. basketball team showed quickness, agility and shooting ability. With work and natural improvement they will surely be a welcome addition to next year's varsity squad. The team featured many budding stars. Doug Jones, a guard scoring 10 points per game was rewarded with a varsity spot by season's end. Jeff Jensen proved to be one of the team's better defensive players while leading the team in rebounds.

Seniors Teeter Through Another Year

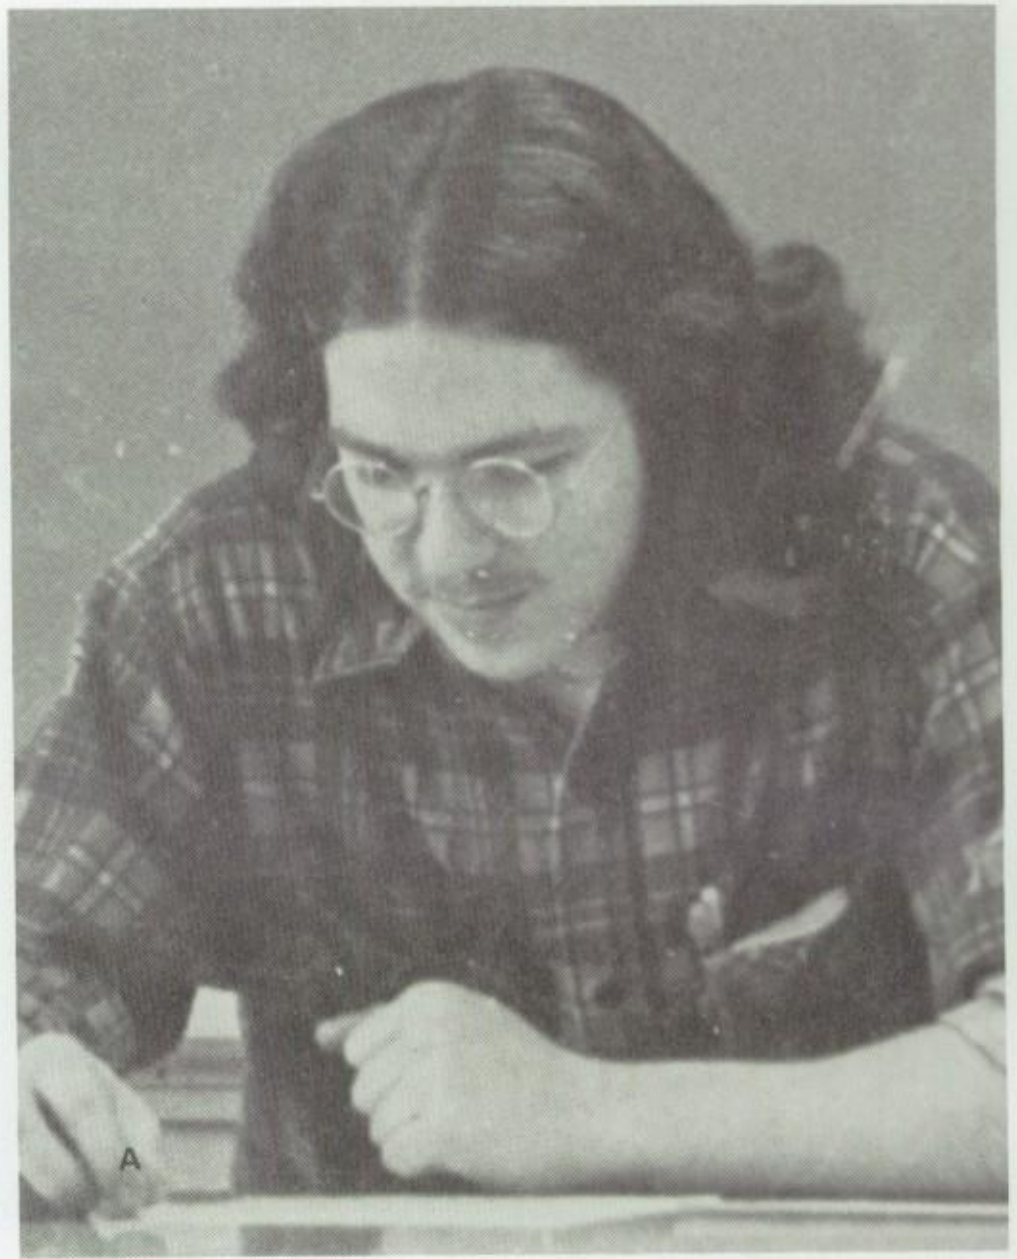

A. That's our illustrious leader? Keith Pohlman, Senior Class President, was actively helping many of the Senior activities.

B. Diane Christensen, Senior Class Treasurer, seems to be up in the air about something. Diane also served as Co-editor of the Shoreliner.

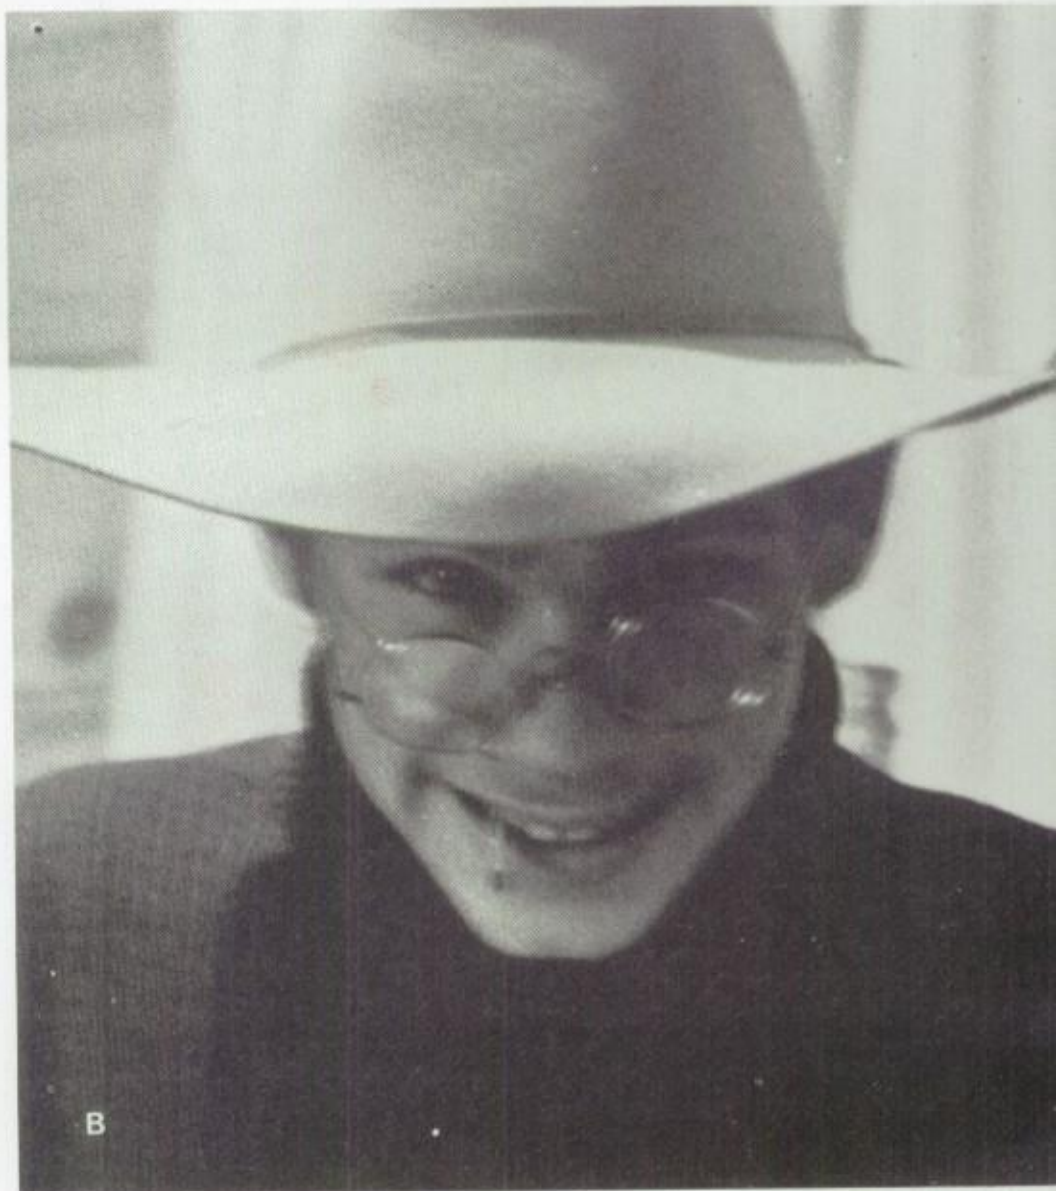

C. That, My friends, is the Senior Class Vice-President Mark Wolslegel, the unique member of the group.

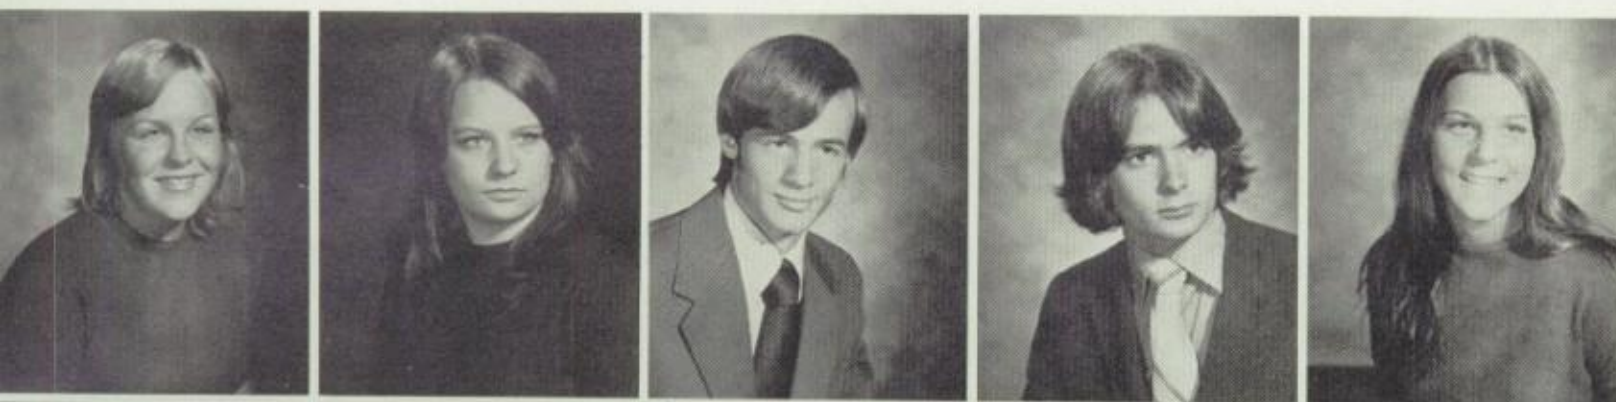

D. It looks like Beth Williamson is the only one that can take it. Serving as Senior Class Secretary has accustomed Beth to the strain.

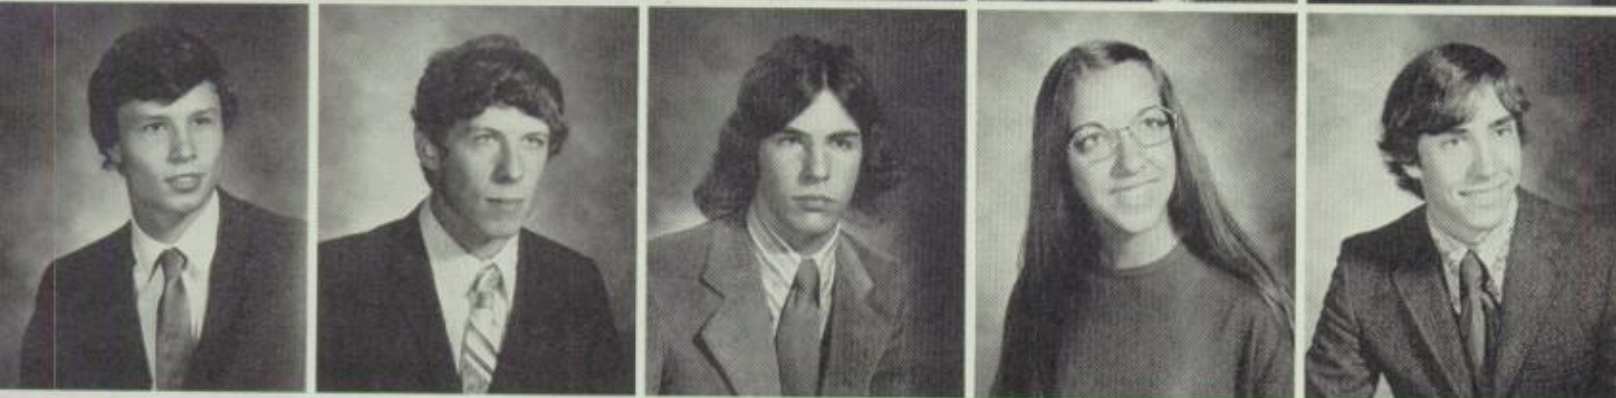

- B. Hmm . . . Let's see now.

A. Senior Marty Schiltz tries to get away from a Garfiel guard to make a score.
 B. Cheri Gearhart and Dick Balch have a little fun of their own during half-time of the KJR-Faculty game.
 C. Mr. Jack Sherwood and Senior Judy Dinges share a little love at a Valentine's Day assembly.
 D. Sue Rawlings and Liz Moore are caught gossiping while walking to class.

On June 5th 1973 the Senior class of Shoreline High School ended its three years at Shoreline. The Commencement Committee was responsible for the contemporary ceremony held at Seattle Center Arena. Co-Chairmen Lorrie Stave and John Troxel were assisted by Linda Abbey, Teresa Bell, Sandy Erickson, Cheryl MacDonald, Ron Willander, Trina Wherry, Barb Blair and Scot Fordyce. Ms. Kathy Kerrick and Mr. James Alderdice advised the committee.

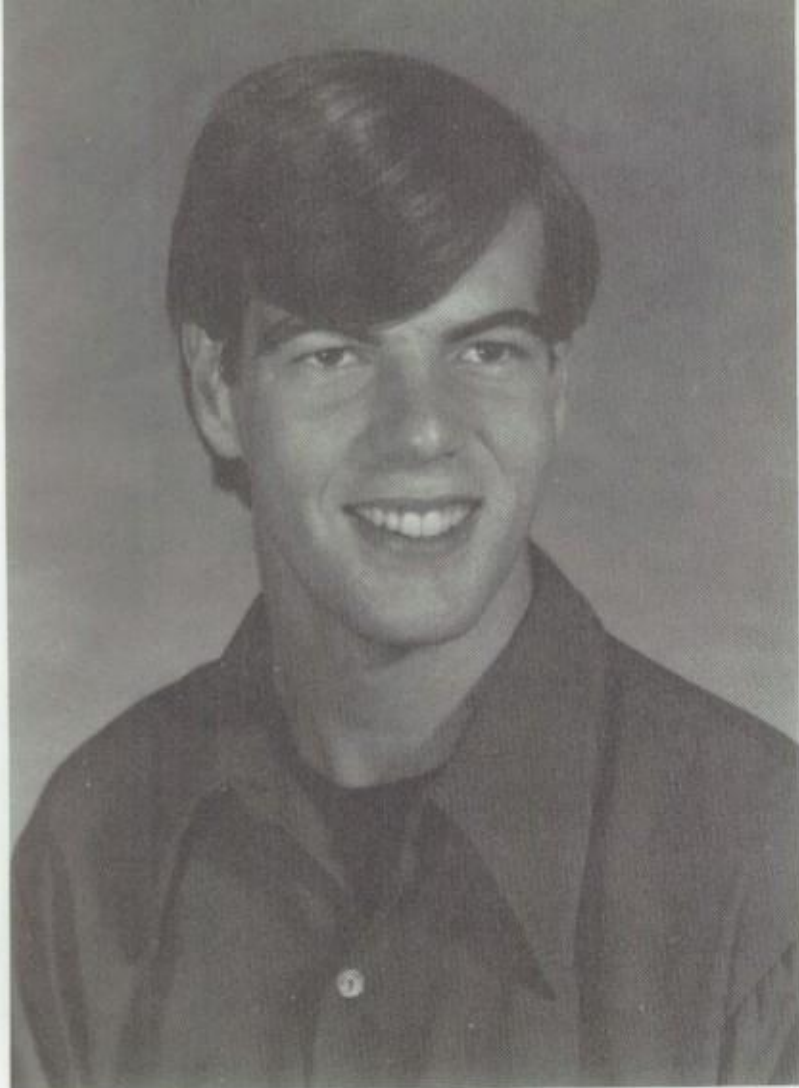

Chairman Dave Van Ness, Jeff Hendrix, Bob Steed and Kirk Reddie were responsible for the gift to the school by the Senior Class.

Thanks to the Senior Pin Committee, Co-chairmen Sandy Strand and Beth Williamson and Debbie Booke, Karen Sauter and Jill Hatch, many Seniors bought a Senior Pin in November.

Jean Hoxter, Chairwoman of the Publicity Committee, saw to it that all Senior activities were publicized throughout the school.

- A. Sandy Strand chaired the Senior Pin Committee. Pins were sold in November.
- B. Dave Van Ness was busy chairing the Senior Gift Committee.
- C. Commencement Committee planned a contemporary ceremony for June 5th.

In Memoriam Melvin Stone 1955-1972

When you part from your friend, grieve not.

For that which you love most in him

May be dearer in his absence,

As the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.

Gibran

Glovers Scoop up Season

Shoreline's baseball team, coached by Mr. Dean McGuire, had its ups and downs this season. These Spartans were led by such players as Art Betts, Marty Harkens, Doug Jones and Wayne Hoflack. One of the greater highlights of the season was a 7 - 4 victory over the Ingraham Rams. Team members this year were Wade Bassi, Art Betts, Jeff Boyd, Dale Conyers, Don Garcia, Tom Gray, Marty Harkens, Jeff Hays, Bill R. Hicks, Wayne Hoflack, Victor Holmes, Dan Jolliffe, Doug Jones, Eddie Krossen, Doug Leahy, Kirk Lee, Mike Lind, Dan Martin, Tom McDonald, Kieth Pohlman, Mark Scott, Mike Shoucair, Tim Sullivan, Paul Titterington, Scott Wittles, Bill Wilson, Scott Moormier, Grady Furlong and John Lindsey.

Spikers Nail Down Opponents,

An air of optimism and confidence surrounded one of the best all around track teams in Shoreline history. Despite being plagued by a rash of injuries to key personnel the Spartan cindermen battled to an undefeated dual meet season, placed a close second at Relay Carnival and won the first annual Shoreline Invitational. Head coach Tom Davis and assistants Al Haynes and Jim Kreiss welcomed a surprising lot of sophomores, some much improved juniors and an extremely talented group of Seniors. The team was led by co-captains Rolfe McCartney, one of the league's top hurdlers and Gordy Braun the defending state two mile champ. Some other individual stars included: hard working sprinter Jim DeWester, long jumper-sprinter Mike Hahn, triple jumper-high jumper Greg Salvage, Sophomore Don Eagon, the school record holder in the high jump, hurdler Kim Causey, distance runner Rich Johnson and sprinter Tony Valenzuela.

- A. Rolfe McCartney explodes out of the blocks in the 120 yard high hurdles.
- B. Junior Scott Monroe soars over the bar in the pole vault.
- C. Kim Causey grimaces while clearing a high hurdle at full speed.
- D. Rich Johnson easily out-distances the field in the mile run.
- E. Gordy Braun cruises around the track during an afternoon workout.
- F. Sophomore Don Eagon "flops" to victory in the high jump.
- G. One of the league's finest long jumpers, Mike Hahn leaps in his specialty.

Tennis Team Captures Fourth

After three close losses at the beginning of the season, the Tennis Team came back to beat Ballard and Shorecrest. Jim Cooper, the team's No. 1 seed, started the season with a winning streak, before losing a close one to Lincoln and ended the season 5-2. The team did not fare as well as Jim, by the end of the season.

- A. Mike Dierdorf gets set to serve.
- B. Dan Thomas returns a serve.
- C. Fred Stock warms up for a match on the Shoreline courts.
- D. Jim Cooper prepares to ace his opponent.

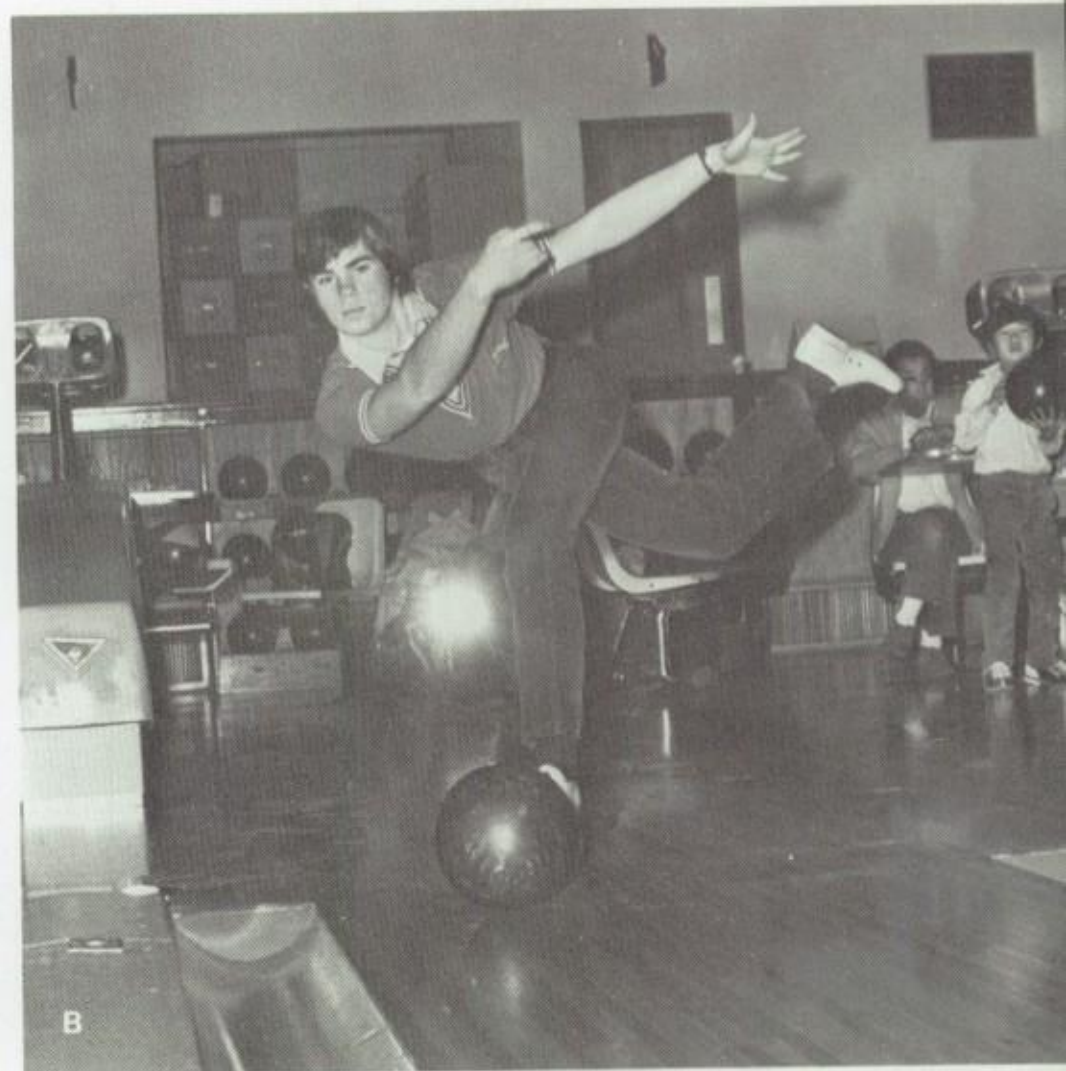

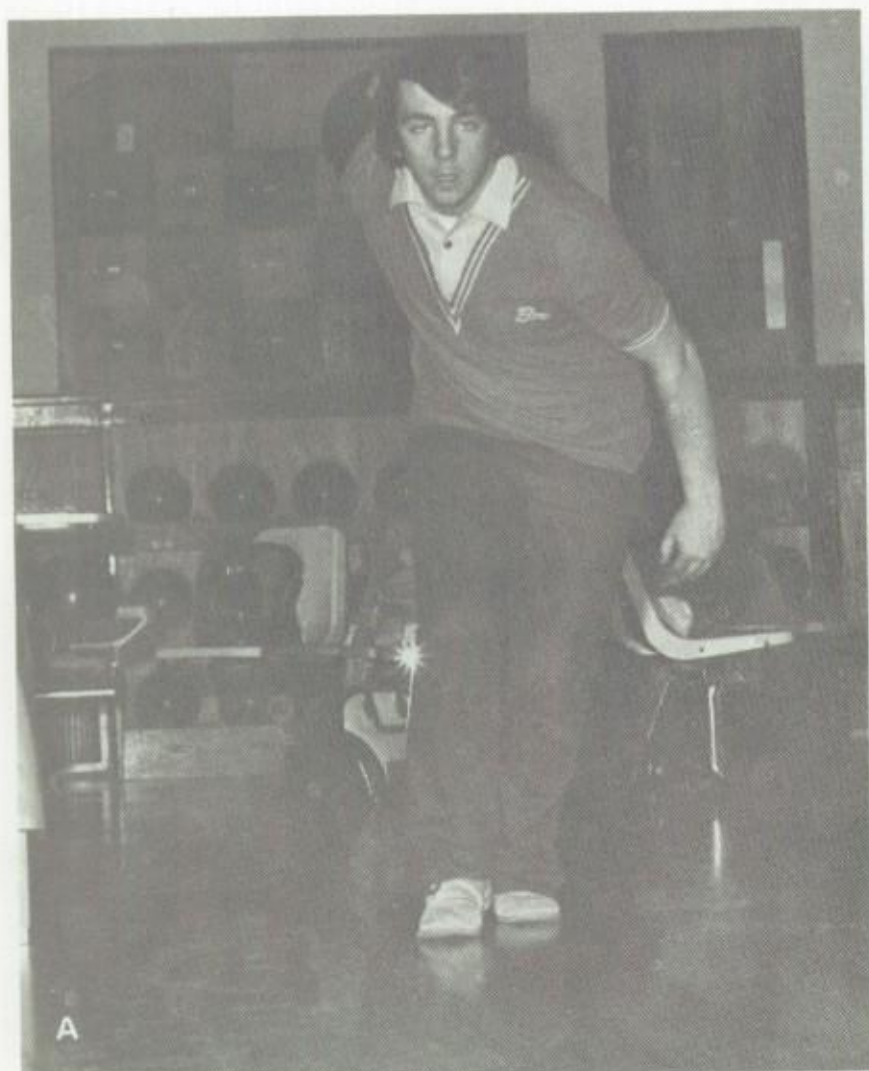

Golfers Full of Drive

This year's golf team was led by Captain Rex Fullerton and Ken Darwin, both returning two year lettermen. The team members put in long hours on as many as four nights a week in preparation for competition, which consisted of five regular season matches. Coach Tom Boyd predicted that with individual effort the starting eight would make it to the Metro playoffs. West Seattle Municipal golf course served as the setting for this year's regular competition with the Jackson and Jefferson courses being used in the playoffs.
